VOLUNTEER FEATURE

This month's featured volunteer is Holly Fassett.

Holly lives in Big Sur, and is part of the family that owns and operates the famous Nepenthe Restaurant and Phoenix Shop.

Holly says she was so happy to find out about the opportunity to volunteer and become part of our Rice plus Project . She learned about it from a friend about four years ago and has been making the trip up ever since. Holly says she feels like she is in a state of grace by giving her energy in this effort and it makes her feel so good to do it.. "So many of us are lucky to have so much and I was looking for a way to give something back. This was perfect and just what I was looking for."

Aside from helping to run a business with 70 to 100 employees, Holly finds

Holly says you have to be a survivor to live in Big Sur. She certainly is, and like all of our volunteers, gives back so generously with time, energy & love.
