Much Appreciation to Employees of the Community Foundation for the Monterey County-

Over fifty dresses, Coats, Jackets, Sweaters, Skirts, and Shoes. Canned Veggies, Cereals, Pasta, Rice, and Beans; Hand/Body Lotion and Shampoo.

We had a great turn out for the December packing – 47 plus volunteers. Over 3500 lbs of rice and beans were packed! We wrapped and distributed an incredible 700 plus gifts putting big smiles on the children faces. Trina and Gillian did a wonderful job of organizing the unwrapped gifts. Cara Franklin and children helped wrap additional gifts we received. Carole Erickson went with us to distribute the gifts. Richardsons were there to pick up the donations from Whole Foods and organize them. Adelheid with her Big Red was at Costco to help us bring the rice.
